

Norstar Junior In-line Hockey Club

Players Code of Conduct

1. Respect

- Treat teammates, opponents, coaches, officials, and spectators with courtesy and respect always.
- Accept decisions made by referees and officials without argument or abuse.

2. Effort and Commitment

- Attend training sessions and games regularly, arriving on time and prepared.
- Always give your best effort, regardless of the score or situation.
- Support your teammates positively and encourage good team spirit.

3. Sportsmanship

- Play fair, within the rules, and in the spirit of the game.
- Avoid unsportsmanlike behaviour such as taunting, swearing, or aggressive acts.
- Congratulate opponents and thank officials after games.

4. Safety and Responsibility

- Always wear full protective equipment when at training.
- Follow coaches' instructions and safety guidelines.
- Sign in at the start of each session.
- Inform the coaches when leaving the hall and no children should leave training early without their parent or guardian having first notified a Coach.
- Avoid dangerous play that could cause injury to yourself or others.
- Use my stick responsibly for hockey only.
- Be responsible for packing my own bag and making sure I have all my kit and water bottle.

Cautions, Warnings and Disciplinary Action – Three Step System with Time Outs

- ☐ First step will be a caution. You will be told why you are being spoken to and asked to change your behaviour. You may be split up and moved to another group if more than one player is involved.
- ☐ Second step will be a final warning for continued disruptive behaviour, and you will be told to stop.
- ☐ Third step will be a 10-minute time out.

Note if you are swearing, using inappropriate language, or hit another player with your stick or any other form of aggressive behaviour, you may immediately be put on a time out.

Representation of the Club

- Remember that your behaviour reflects on Norstar Junior In-line Hockey Club.
- Act responsibly and respectfully when travelling to other venues or representing the club in public.
